

Patti Hardwick
Accounting Clerk

Patti Jo Hardwick is an Idahoan through and through, born in Eastern Idaho with a passion for both agriculture and business management. Patti's career has intertwined at different points within the agriculture industry, working as an accountant for Harries Ranch Beef Company in Blackfoot, ID, and later for Supreme Potato Co. in Shelley, ID.

Patti honed her business skills during 18 years at Hewlett Packard in Corvallis, OR. She became a process analyst focused on implementation of new business processes, new product introductions, supply chain management, total quality improvement, and global execution of new processes, operating within several cross-functional teams.

After H-P, Patti moved back to her agricultural roots, joining a Willamette Valley grass seed, berry, and vineyard business as Customer Service Manager. In addition to customer service, she handled all inventory control, had process control of 6 business units, and was in charge of developing and controlling a vineyard tasting room.

Finally, Patti returned to Boise to spend more time with family and old friends, and now Scythe & Spade is enjoying her deep background and enthusiastic commitment to excellence.
